Explanation and Usage

The matrices contained in this file are designed to ease transition to MasterFormat 2004, both for users of previous editions of MasterFormat and for new users. The spreadsheet consists of three worksheets, identified on the tabs at the bottom of the screen:

1) 1988 – 2004 Transition

This sheet relates 1988 edition MasterFormat numbers and titles to the equivalent titles in the 2004 edition. It is sorted by MasterFormat 1988 numbers. The intended use of this sheet is to aid in the transition of information organized by MasterFormat 1988 numbers to MasterFormat 2004 numbers.

2) 1995 – 2004 Transition

This sheet relates the 1995 edition MasterFormat numbers and titles to the equivalent titles in the 2004 edition. It is sorted by MasterFormat 1995 numbers. The intended use of this sheet is to aid in the transition of information organized by MasterFormat 1995 numbers to MasterFormat 2004 numbers.

3) 2004 Numbers and Titles

This sheet is a comprehensive list of all MasterFormat 2004 Edition numbers and titles. Because of the expanded content in the 2004 edition and the significantly larger number of titles, the two transition sheets do not contain all of the MasterFormat 2004 edition titles, only those that relate to 1988 or 1995 edition titles. This sheet is designed to provide a similar level of access to all MasterFormat 2004 numbers and titles.
